71. AIADMK general secretary Edappadi .K. Palaniswami met Home Minister Amit Shah at the latter's residence in New Delhi on Tuesday night, signaling the potential revival of ties between the two parties ahead of the 2026 Tamil Nadu Assembly election. For the record, Mr. Palaniswami handed over a memorandum to the Home Minister in which he raised the issue of delimitation, and also complained about the "deteriorating" law and order situation.

The AIADMK had quit the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance in September 2023, accusing the State BJP leadership of deliberately and maliciously defaming AIADMK's icons -former Chief Ministers C.N. Annadurai and J. Jayalalithaa - and criticizing its policies. Till recently, it had maintained that it would not have truck with the BJP for the 2026 Assembly poll too. Speaking to reporters before the meeting, BJP Tamil Nadu president K. Annamalai, who was in Chennai, said : "The ultimate objective of the NDA is to unseat the DMK from power and any party that is resolved to do that can join the alliance."
